AGREEMENT TO ALLOW THE ERECTION OF SIGNAGE

This agreement is between, the 2012 Leadership Lafayette Group and Jamie Whitten, Jr. owner of Southside Gallery located at 150 Courthouse Square, Oxford, Mississippi.

Southside Gallery has agreed to give the Leadership Lafayette Group, a leadership class sponsored by the Oxford Lafayette County Chamber of Commerce, the permission to erect a piece of wall art on the east side wall of Southside Gallery which is also located in Faulkner's Alley.

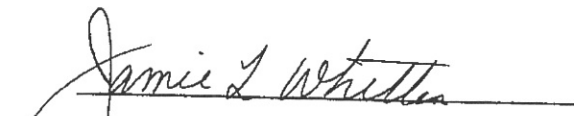

The goal is to beautify Faulkner's Alley with the addition of a piece of artwork that signifies the history of Faulkner, the alley, or the Oxford Square. The art will be created by a local artists and the vision of the group is for Faulkner's Alley to serve as an outdoor art gallery and become a cultural stop for both tourists and residents.

Attached is the project proposal outlining the current plans to move forward with this project once we secure written permission from Jamie Whitten, Jr. owner of Southside Gallery or a designated representative of Southside Gallery.

The next step in this process will be to seek approval from the City of Oxford and any other community entity required by the City of Oxford.

The below signature authorizes the Leadership Lafayette permission to erect artwork on the east side wall of Southside Gallery as proposed in the attached proposal.

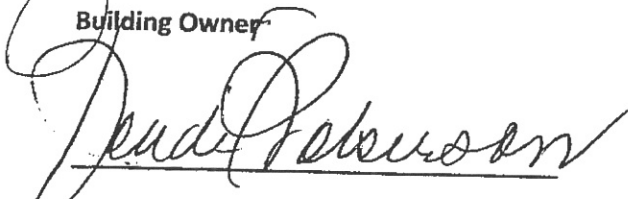

Furthermore, the owner of the building has the right to terminate this agreement for any reason on 60 days written notice.
